

Body Traffic Yoga Session

APRIL 12 | THE SHARON L. MORSE PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

Before performing onstage that evening, two members of Los Angeles-based dance company Body Traffic led a free, hourlong yoga session. Melissa Bourkas and Christina Bodie taught the morning class in the lobby. Some 25 Villages residents and staff members participated, ranging from first-timers to recreation center yoga instructors. Attendees also received free tickets to the show.
