RECORD SET FOR RUNNING, JUGGLING AT THE SAME TIME

It won't land him a spot in the Olympics, but a college student has run one of the fastest miles while juggling — an endeavor called "joggling."

Zach Prescott ran a 4-minute, 43.2-second-mile Tuesday while juggling three lacrosse balls.

The junior business student, who is on Boston University's track and cross country squads said it's all about focus and rhythm. Once he gets used to the speed when he's running, "you're pretty much just juggling in place."

Stakeholders broke ground Wednesday on one of the most ambitious commercial construction projects in the history of Sumter County, and what also may become a national model of patient-centric health care.

Work began in earnest as gold shovels ceremoniously turned dirt for the Center For Advanced Healthcare and the Brownwood Hotel & Spa on a tract of land just west of Grand Traverse Plaza at Brownwood.

Gov. Rick Scott joined more than 100 dignitaries, development partners, future tenants and guests to celebrate nearly two years of planning for the

Laughter Was Plentiful During Bill Engvall's Show at The Sharon

By KRISTEN FIORE
Daily Sun Senior Writer

The capacity crowd shrieked with laughter as comedian Bill Engvall finished telling the story of the time he got lost in the woods wearing a Batman costume.

Engvall, known for "Here's Your Sign," "Blue Collar Comedy," and "Dancing with the Stars," did two shows Thursday at the Sharon L. Morse Performing Arts Center.

"He's a good comedian," said Buck Buchanan, of the Village of Pennecamp. "It's just clean comedy and he has a good sense of humor."

At the start of the show, Engvall stepped out on the stage, saying, "I like this place already. They need to have a TV show
